

Waleed is an industry leader with extensive experience in airport privatization, including development, finance and transformation, as well as economic regulation and policy.

He has been committed to enhancing the role and effectiveness of ASA World since joining the association in 2025.

Experienced executive with extensive international and Board level experience in airport privatization (buy and sale side), Infrastructure finance, consultancy services, acquisition and bid management, corporatization, strategy, Public Private Partnership, economics and finance.